
Karen Fenstermacher

Assistant Commander, Enterprise Business Operations Naval Supply Systems Command

Ms. Fenstermacher is the Assistant Commander for Enterprise Business Operations for the Naval Supply Systems Command (NAVSUP), Mechanicsburg, PA. She was selected to the Senior Executive Service in 2004. Prior to her assignment as Assistant Commander for Enterprise Business Operations she was the Director of Corporate Operations and the Command Information Officer. Previous to her affiliation with the Command Information Office, Ms. Fenstermacher was Director of the Pilot Funding and Project Management Group in the Department of Navy eBusiness Operations Office, Ms. Fenstermacher was a Senior Financial Analyst and Director of the Cash Management Division of the Naval Supply Systems Command Headquarters, where she was responsible for the pricing and cash solvency for a $6 billion annual budget.

A native of Massachusetts, Ms. Fenstermacher graduated from Elms College, Chicopee, MA, with a bachelor's degree in finance and economics spending a year studying at the London School of Economics. She holds a master's degree in strategic studies from the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle, PA. Ms. Fenstermacher is a member of the Defense Leadership and Management Program (DLAMP) since 1999.

She joined the federal government after graduating from college in 1990. During her career Ms. Fenstermacher had tenures as a financial systems analyst with the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Comptroller, the Senate Arms Services Committee staff as a financial analyst and the Navy Budget Office as a program manager all in Washington D.C. She has written many technical papers and provided many presentations in the area of finance.

Ms. Fenstermacher received the Meritorious Civilian Service Award in 2000. In October of 2002 Ms. Fenstermacher was named Naval Supply Systems Command Executive of the Year. She holds professional memberships in the American Society for Military Comptrollers and the Acquisition Professional Community.

Updated 1-12